

You might have seen St. Patrick's Class out and about searching for signs of Autumn. We set off through the village to the woodland, observing all the clues that told us that Autumn had arrived. Everyone had a clipboard so we could tick off the signs that we saw. We even added things that weren't on our list. Then we collected conkers and conker husks and had fun kicking the Autumn leaves.

